

Observed Emissions and Emission Scenarios

Emissions are heading to a 4.0-6.1°C “likely” increase in temperature
 Large and sustained mitigation is required to keep below 2°C

Linear interpolation is used between individual datapoints

Source: Peters et al. 2012a; Global Carbon Project 2012;